NIGHT

PRICE ONE CENT.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1901.

actorlà.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT

night and Friday; light to

WEATHER FORECAST.

Hickman's Two-Bagger Sends in Two Runs for the Giants in First Inning---Chicago Batters Hit Pitcher Doheny Freely.

"KENNEDY IS VICTIM OF PLOT."

which he began before the care had proceeded far to-day, Lawyer Moore charged the police with

He dwelt strongly on the fact that the small piece of pipe, which the prosecution tried to show was simito Kennedy's cellar, that it was not to the shop of Plumber Melville, and ridors leading to Part III. were jammed. missed a similar piece from his shop.

"We will celebrate his wedding anniversary on Sunday," he said. "My son be a happy reunion for us all. He will be home in time for the anniversary." There are threats and counter-threats Lords."

making statements that were damaging wife. Actress Marie Wainwright. One to himself, Miss Hanretty, Actor Rob- of Mrs. Roberts's daughters, a dainty

Lawyer Moore Declares Before the Jury that the Dentist Has Been | Pursell, was Moore asked: Surrounded by Deep

erts and Mrs. Kennedy swore that he lied.

Police Conspiracy.

After the recess the aged father of by the court officers in their efforts to Every seat was occupied in a twink-ling, though none was supposed to be on Sunday," he said. "My son admitted except those connected in some rried on June 16, 1805, and it will capacity with the case. A bevy of waists were bunched in the "House of of wholesale arrests of Kennedy trial Four of the jurymen brought their witnesses after the case has gone to the wives with them. The ladies took wife Astrons statements that were demonstrated wife Astrons Warle Walneright. One within the railing directly across Witness Bottlestein's testimony of the room from their husbands in the

Miss Mamie Pursell, daughter of Mi

'is Mr. Bottlestein in the court room? There was no answer. Miss Pursell testified that Actor Roberts was not present at the dinner giver n her father's house. She had neve seen the actor until he stood up in court axth Inning—Aerson Dobery and Van fanned. No runs. Ganzel out at first. Dexier fanned. Chance singled.

Thinge-End of sixth: Chicago 6: Baltimore, 6, At Boston-End of equith: Delroit, (O: Boston, 6.

RESULTS AT GRAVESEND. Sixth Race - Wax Taper 1. Gold Spinner 2. Wallabout 3.

MARLEM WINNERS. Fourth Race-Ben Chance 1, Odnor 2, Myth 3,

nce of American newspaper methods this afternoon, prolonged her passage

Fifth Race-Bill Massie 1. Moses 2. Our Nellie 3. Pew Hours Out. An accident to the White Star liner Oceanic, which arrived from Liverpool HAND GUT OFF TWELVE BANKS WITH CLEAVER.

Green Man in Packing- Failure of Credit-Ansalt House Mutilated by Friend.

BERLIN, June 13.—The run on the Supeler, a green Polander working in Merwin's packing house, had his right hand cut off above the wrist at 8 o'clock this morning.

A fellow-workman was chopping meat with a butcher's cleaver, and Supeler accidentally slees his hand on the Dresden description.

BERLIN, June 13.—The run on the Supeler continues, The June 13.—The run on the Supeler sense to his home, No. 210 Early one Hundred and Thirteen his rect. Mrs June 14 Murphy huried to court. When her his shand saw her he called out:

"Don't come near me, Mary. I'm affait I'll Vill you!"

Are fellow-workman was chopping meat with a butcher's cleaver, and Supeler accidentally slees his hand on the left of the fellow of t

Precipitates Many

UNION PACIFIC A BANKRUPT. CETS ST. PAUL?

bilities at $134,340; Assets $90,275.

Adolph H. Chamberlyn, theatrical A Wall street report this afternoon manager, of 1445 Broadway, who lives was to the effect that he Union Pa-

London, is creditor for $2,000 for rent of Manager Places Lia-Report that Rockefeller Purchased Securities of James H. Smith.

manager, of 1445 Broadway, who lives in the Rutland apartment-house at Fifty-seventh street and Seventh avenue, filed a petition in bankruptcy to-day in the office of the clerk of the United States Court.

His liabilities are given as $124,240.71 and his nominal assets as $99,275.

The principal unsecured creditor is George W. Lederer, No. 1440 Broadway. $20,800 for borrowed money. Harvey Morrell, of the Shaftesbury Theatre, London, is creditor for $2,000 for rent of $2,000 for second lines, and Union Pacific control of the St. Paul and Union Pacific con the strength of the reported transfer. reported transfer. St. Paul rose 53-8 points, and Union Pacific 41-4.

AFRAID HE WOULD MANY CALLED TO KILL SOMEBODY. BARKER TRIAL.

Rich Harlem Man Asks Eighty Witnesses Sum-Magistrate to Declare Him Insane.

Harlem Court this afternoon to be committed as insane. Mr. Murphy told the Magistrate ho was suffering from homicidal mania and was afraid he would kill some one if not restrained.

The old man was detained and a mesmoned-Case Goes on Monday.

Over eighty witnesses have been sumwealthy and old resident of Harlem, moned to testify at the trial of Thomas the box in Sunday's game, the last of applied to Magistrate Cornell in the S. Barker, of Arlington, N. J., who should be series. the Rev. John Keller in that town on Feb. 3. The trial begins in the Hudson county Court-riouse next Monday.

Some of the witnesses sammoned will so to the court witn great reluctance. Insere are some persons on whom notices to appear have not been served, out Prosecutor Erwin is confident that every witness he wants to call will be on hand in due time.

Mr. Erwin nas completed his case against Barker and says that he is ready for any defense, whether it be emotional insanity or justifiable homicide. It is believed that most of Barker's witnesses will swear that the defendant showed signs of insanity.

Rev. Sr. Keller and his friends are consistent of vindication. the Rev. John Keller in that town on conversation that has been passed back and forth, Umpire Billy Nash, as every one predicted, failed to show up here toerstwhile top-notchers and Jack Doyle's much-walloped tail-enders. With the non-appearance of Nash, the war cloud baseball map disappeared, and all is Eddie Doheny was selected this Thought he was playing

oon to pitch the Giants back into winning form. The south paw twirler had shown good work each time out this year, and he was sure he could take. Tom Loftus's erratic crew into camp.

Chiengos Not Ensy. "We must not imagine we have an easy thing here," said Manager Davis his morning. "Chicago took two games out of four from us at the Polo Grounds and yesterday Doyle's men played all around the Brooklyns. Still, we are due for a brace after our slump at Pitts-burg, and I think we can take three of the four games here."

According to Davis's pitching schedule, Doheny held the rubber to-day. Dummy Taylor will bend them over tomorrow, and Mathewson will be on parade Saturday. Billy Phyle will oc

Elmore Cunningham, the sawed-off in dicator handler, who needs a step-ladder to judge balls and strikes behind tall catchers like Bowerman and Warner, 19 the diamond official who has been sent here by diplomatic Uncle Nick Young in

Glants' Slim Chance for Less. The Giants still have a slim c of going home in first place. It all depends on Boston's showing the Pirates at Smoketown. If

ANNOYED CIRL WHO HELPED HIM.

Miss Coveny, Good Angel to the McMahons, Invokes the Law.

Edward J. McMahon was arraigned in Adams Street Court, Brooklyn, to-da on complaint of Miss Emma Coveny, who charged him with disorderly conduct. Miss Coveny is a pretty brunette "heilo" girl, and lives at the corner of Fifty-first street and Eleventh avenue.

Miss Coveny declared in court that McMahon fell in love with a chum of hers. Last January she loaned him money with which to buy the wedding ring, and the couple were married. Their domestic life was not happy, and to help them Miss Coveny went to board with them.

The McMahons, though, quarrelled two weeks ago decided that it was I am in to-day. I was but twenty-three separated, made up again, and about Miss Coveny says, McMahon has been

She had to appeal for protection to policemen on two occasions, and couldn't stand it any longer. McMahon was held in $300 pending an examination to-morrow.

Got 50,000 Marks from Berlin Jewellers. BERLIN, June 18.-A man named rested to-day on entering the place oc-cupied by an alleged receiver of stolen goods.

Ende stabbed the policeman who took him into custody.

EDITOR PEARSON HERE FOR POINTS.

Great English Publisher Lands in This City from The World's Tug.

ne to-day C. Arthur Pearson, the noted son said: inglish editor and publisher, left the big

Mr. Pearson as he stepped ashore might have been taken for a New York- any other nation would have shot rebels down, the war would have been ended er. He wore a gray business suit and a straw hat and carried a small cane. Reporters surrounded him and one asked him what he thought of America.
"This is my fifth visit," he said, smilable that I would not be in the position best to live apart. Since that time, years old then. I came here and found many young men, no better equipped than I. doing well for themselves. When went back to London I embarked in usiness for myself."

Mr. Pearson was asked if the influwas visible in the English press.

"Indeed, it is," he answered. "If it were not for the American papers the Express and the Mail of London would never have been started."

"What is the English view of the Morgan consolidation scheme?" was the Morgan consolidation scheme?" was the found that the port propeller was "racting" and the engines were stopped. AMERICAN THIEF CAPTURED. Express and the Mail of London would never have been started."

Morgan consolidation scheme?" was the Ende, supposed to be an American, who is accused of robbing jewellers to the amount of 50,000 marks ($11,500), was ar-

Atlantic City.

A new train between New York and Atlantic City.

A new train between New York and Atlantic City is Pennsylvania Railroad on Sundays from Mr. Pearson quickly. Then he added:

Three Hours to Atlantic City.

"Oh, you haven't got it all yet," said

Mr. Pearson quickly. Then he added:

Three Hours to Atlantic City.

On susuary, leave v.a. Pennsylvania Mariroad, for the present for the

When the Oceanic arrived at Quaran- | Asked about the Boer war Mr. Pear-

Too Kind to Boers. on which he was brought to the Batery. He was landed at the Ellis Island steamboat pler.
Mr. Pearson as he stepped ashore

"The war would have been over a year or more ago but for the idiotic, childish kindness of our people in their treatment of those fellows. If we had stood them up against a wall and shot them down, as any other nation would have shot rebels "The war would have been over a year long ago."

Mr. Pearson would make no statement about the victory of Mr. Whitney's Volodyovski in the Derby, but he "This is my fifth visit," he said, smilingly, "and I think it is a little early for me to announce an opinion on so broad a subject.

Learned His Lesson Here.

"I will say that if it had not been for my first visit to New York it is probable that I would not be in the nesition."

"I would not be in the nesition."

"I would not be in the nesition."

"I will say that if would not be in the nesition."

"I want to look over the plant of The World," ne remarked, "the finest plant that ever happened."

OCEANIC LOST A BLADE.

Big Ship Jarred by Accident When

Morgan consolidation scheme?" was the next question.

"American capitalists are waking the English up," was the response. "American methods, introduced in so many ways, are putting new life into English business men. The advent of your capitalists in our field is not looked upon as American aggression. It is the best thing that ever happened for England." "What is the feeling about the encroachment of America on English forcign trade?" was the force carry propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was not satisfactory to Capit. Cameron, who celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation. The propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was not satisfactory to Capit. Cameron, who celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation. The propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was not satisfactory to Capit. Cameron, who celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation. The propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was of the celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation.

The propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was not satisfactory to Capit. Cameron, who celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation.

The propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was not satisfactory to Capit. Cameron, who celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation.

The propeller was "racling" and the engines were stopped. An examination was made, but it was not satisfactory to Capit. Cameron, who celeded to return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation.

The propeller was found in good order save for the loss of one blade, and on the following day. June 6, the Oceanic return to Liverpool for a more thorough investigation.

The propeller was found in good order save for